SUIT TO SET ASIDE THE MARY PICKFORD DIVORCE OVERALLS WORN TO CURB HIGH CLOTHING COST

GARMENT CAMPAIGN IN ORDER

(By Associated Press)
KANSAS CITY, April 16.—The "Overalls Club" movement, intended as a protest against the high cost of clothing is spreading rapidly throughout the southwest. Dispatches said that clubs have been formed at numerous places in Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas and Arkansas. The inaugural outfit of Rev. Joseph Brogan, mayor elect of Emporia, Kansas, and president elect of the Emporia Overall Club, will be in overalls, according to his announcement.

(By Associated Press)
BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 16.—The lowly overall today supplanted "pinheads" in Birmingham. Rainy weather served to fortify the wavering intentions of those who resolved to "see what the other fellow did" before they donned denim themselves. As the result of a pledge to put them on, today was universally kept.

(By Associated Press)
LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 16.—An overall club was formed in Louisville today in an effort to force down the price of clothing.

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, April 16.—The navy department has granted permission to the overall club of civilian navy yard employees to purchase garments from the navy at cost.

(By Associated Press)
WALLA WALLA, Studnets of the Whitman college appeared in classes today wearing old clothes and khaki garments.

(By Associated Press)
LEWISTON, Idaho, April 16.—Students of the Lewiston high school are perfecting the organization of an overall club which is to be extended to all young men of the city who join in the movement.

(By Associated Press)
NEW YORK, April 16.—The enthusiasm for wearing overalls is said to have increased so rapidly that the all-over club, composed largely of female press agents, announced postponement of its parade today in order that all who are anxious to march may get in line a few days hence.

IRISH POLICE FIRE AT CROWD

(By Associated Press)
DUBLIN, Ireland, April 16.—A mob of about 500 persons gathered in front of the police station today. The police fired at the crowd and the crowd fired back. The police returned the fire, wounding three civilians.

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, April 16.—R. L. Edgerton, assistant secretary of the treasury, has resigned and his resignation was accepted by President Wilson.

TRAINMEN VOTE DOWN OUTLAWS IN CALIFORNIA

(By Associated Press)
LOS ANGELES, April 16.—All railroad men here expected to operate passenger trains on schedule today and move some freight regardless of the strike of switchmen that admittedly hampered operations for the past week. Improved conditions, railroad officials said, were assured by the action of engineers and conductors who agreed to run trains regardless of the strike conditions.

HUMP YOURSELF AND BE A CAMEL

Milton B. Moore, one of the leading attorneys of Reno and chief of Reno caravan, of the Order of Camels, arrived this morning to preside at the open meeting called at the Air dome for the purpose of organizing the liberal minded people of Tonopah. After the mass meeting those who have filed application for membership will remain and the caravan will proceed to business.

Judge Moore in conversation this morning set forth the objects of the order: "I want to see a lodge of Camels in every town in the state. None but naturalized citizens are eligible and the object is to amalgamate the forces in the United States to secure a repeal of the drastic prohibition law. The organization is not working in the interests of saloons or the liquor element and the object is not to rehabilitate the saloon, but to restore personal liberty that citizens may exercise their judgment without going to the pen and to endeavor to prevent the passage of other drastic laws to abridge personal liberty."

The growth of the order has been phenomenal. Since its birth in Milwaukee, January 16, 1920, 118 caravans have been organized and every state in the union is represented.

(By Associated Press)
CHICAGO, April 16.—Strikers in the Chicago district must return to work by midnight Saturday or their membership in the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen will be cancelled. The chapters of three lodges, including one in San Francisco, were revoked today.

FREAK WEATHER BREAKS LOOSE

Freak weather blew in on Tonopah early this morning when the wind attained proportions of a hurricane. At 5 a. m. the temperature dropped to 23, the lowest of 24 hours and the camp was enveloped in what promised to be a blizzard lasting through the day. The snow blew in sheets that shut out the view across Main street. Five minutes later the sun was shining brightly under a cloud in the sky. Half an hour later a hailstorm that lasted ten minutes began and then there was a slight sprinkle of warm rain. When all these changes had been run on the weather the wind kept rising until at 11:30 o'clock it registered a velocity of 48 miles an hour for five minutes. Between 11 and 12 the wind maintained a speed of 42 miles and everything portable was swept off the desert. Out on the Divide it was reported that several handframes and a number of light shacks were toppled over. The power service was hampered by poles going down. The forecast issued today was the bluest sent out in five years, reading: "Tonight and Saturday fair colder tonight with freezing temperature, slowly diminishing westerly winds, warmer Saturday."

Conspiracy Alleged With New Husband to Evade Nevada Law

(By Associated Press)
MINDEN, Nev., April 16.—In behalf of the state of Nevada a suit asking that the decree of divorce granted Mary Pickford from Owen Moore, be set aside here this afternoon by Leonard B. Fowler, attorney general. The complaint is based on allegations of fraud, connivance and collusion between Moore, his wife and Douglas Fairbanks, by whom Mary Pickford was married a short time after the divorce was granted. Fairbanks is brought into the case by the allegation that there was conspiracy between himself and his present wife to defeat that provision of the California law which requires one year to elapse before a final decree of divorce is granted.

BIG DOINGS ON VICTORY TODAY

This is the day when big results are expected from the Victory Day which will go far towards determining the future policy of the company in the matter of development. Among the engineers there remains a difference of opinion regarding the Victory ledge. Many of the leading superintendents of the divide mines went underground yesterday and while a majority of them expressed the belief that the ore body was that of the big Divide several insist that the ledge was traceable to the Intero Divide, the course of which would throw it over to the Divide. Consolidated group rather than into the Belcher's exploration will decide this in a few days and also set at rest the surmise that the ore body is only a temporary enrichment that would have to be followed to the sulphide zone for permanency. If today's developments are satisfactory it is up to the management whether it is expedient to put in an ore bin and enter the shipping list or wait for the opening of a more extensive ore body before beginning stoping for steady production.
